Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, Radio Emergency Associated Communications Teams (REACT) International is a non-profit organization of volunteers who use their own two - way radios and time to provide public service and emergency communications for travelers and for their local communities; and

WHEREAS, these men and women assist in the handling of emergency communications, safety, first aid, and traffic control and provide manpower for a variety of local charitable organizations and activities across the nation; and

WHEREAS, REACT volunteers throughout the Palmetto State have assisted nationwide in the saving of countless lives by speeding medical and other aid to the site of an accident or disaster; and throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the significant contributions made by REACT volunteers to the continued well-being of the residents of the Palmetto State.

WHEREAS, through their many hours of community service, REACT volunteers have helped ensure the continued safety of the people of South Carolina.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 2005 as
